Top Itineraries

Day One

Circular Quay & the Rocks (p56)

Why postpone joy? Start at Circular Quay and head directly to the Sydney Opera House. Circle around it and follow the shoreline into the Royal Botanic Garden. Have a good look about and then continue around Mrs Macquaries Point and down to Woolloomooloo.

Lunch Grab a pie at Harry's Cafe de Wheels (p115), a Sydney institution.

City Centre & Haymarket (p74)

Head up to the Art Gallery of NSW. Take some time to explore the gallery then cross the Domain and cut through Sydney Hospital to Macquarie St. Parliament House is immediately to the right, while to the left is the Mint and Hyde Park Barracks. Cross into Hyde Park and head straight through its centre, crossing Park St and continuing on to the Anzac Memorial.

Dinner Catch a cab to Folonomo (p103) for profits-to-charity dining.

Surry Hills & Darlinghurst (p98)

After dinner, if you haven't booked tickets for a play at Belvoir St Theatre, take a stroll along Crown St. There are plenty of good bars and pubs to stop at along the way.

Day Two

Bondi, Coogee & the Eastern Beaches (p130)

Grab your swimming gear and head to the beach. Catch the bus to Bondi and spend some time strolling about and soaking it all in. If the weather's right, stop for a swim. Once you're done, take the clifftop path to Tamarama and on to Bronte.

Lunch Detour slightly up to Bronte's excellent Three Blue Ducks (p138).

Bondi, Coogee & the Eastern Beaches (p130)

Continue on the coastal path through Waverley Cemetery and down to Clovelly. This is a great spot to stop for a swim or a snorkel. Continuing on you'll pass Gordons Bay and Dolphin Point before you arrive at Coogee Beach. Stop for a drink on the rooftop of Coogee Pavilion then jump aboard a bus back to Bondi Junction. Shopaholics can have a brief whirl around Westfield.

Dinner Get a taste of classic Chinatown at Golden Century (p86).

City Centre & Haymarket (p74)

Stroll a few blocks north to check out some of the city's small bars. Grandma's, the Barber Shop, Grasshopper and the Baxter Inn are good ones to start you off, or you could continue the Chinese theme at Uncle Ming's.

Day Three

Around the Harbour (p143)

Take the scenic ferry ride from Circular Quay to Watsons Bay. Walk up to the Gap to watch the waves pounding against the cliffs, then continue on to Camp Cove for a dip. Take the South Head Heritage Trail for sublime views of the city and the whole of the upper harbour.

Lunch Enjoy the beer garden at Watsons Bay Beach Club (p152).

Circular Quay & the Rocks (p56)

Head back to Circular Quay and spend the afternoon exploring the Rocks. Start at the Museum of Contemporary Art and then head up into the network of narrow lanes to the Rocks Discovery Museum. Continue through the Argyle Cut to Millers Point and wander up Observatory Hill. Pop into one of Sydney's oldest pubs (maybe the Lord Nelson or Hero of Waterloo) and then explore the wharves of Walsh Bay and double back under the Sydney Harbour Bridge.

Dinner Book well in advance for Sydney's top restaurant, Quay (p68).

Circular Quay & the Rocks (p56)

Make this a glamorous night out. Book a show at the Sydney Opera House or Walsh Bay, or head straight

Day Four

Darling Harbour & Pyrmont (p91)

Have a stroll around the waterfront and settle on whichever of the big attractions takes your fancy – perhaps the Australian National Maritime Museum or Sydney Sea Life Aquarium. Each of these will easily fill an entire morning.

Lunch For a cheap bite, pop up to Central Baking Depot (p83).

Around the Harbour (p143)

Jump on the river service at King St Wharf and take an hour-long cruise upstream as far as Sydney Olympic Park. Take a stroll around Newington Nature Reserve until the next ferry arrives to whisk you back. Stop at Cockatoo Island for a look at its art installations and the remnants of its convict and shipbuilding past. From here you can either catch a ferry to Balmain, or head straight back to Darling Harbour or Circular Quay.

Newtown & the Inner West (p155)

After dinner stroll up to King St, Newtown, and cruise the late-night bookshops and bars. A short pub crawl could include the Marlborough, Corridor, Courthouse Hotel and

WRITER THANKS

Andy Symington

It's always a great pleasure roaming around Sydney, and one that is facilitated thanks to many extremely helpful people along the way. I am particularly grateful to Corinna Mazurek for some excellent cafe investigations; to Toni, Daniel Beech, Portia Tshegofatso Loeto, Matt Beech and Peter Smith for sterling research company; to Raquel Bloom and colleagues for so much information; to my family for their support and to Tasmin Waby and Niamh O'Brien at LP.

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writer

Andy Symington

Andy has prowled the globe insatiably, speaks several languages and is passionate about human rights and international development issues. After studying archaeology and psychology, he worked in the navigation business and, for some time, in educational and community theatre before long travels through South America eventually saw him wind up in Edinburgh, selling whisky to the Scots. Andy first became involved in writing when someone cannily contracted him to contribute to a pub guide; his formidable research on that title broke a man but launched a career.

Since then, Andy has written or worked on over a hundred books and other updates for Lonely Planet (especially in Europe and Latin America) and other publishing companies, and has published articles for a variety of newspapers, magazines, and websites. He part-owns and operates a rock bar, has written a novel and is currently working on several fiction and non-fiction writing projects. Originally from Australia, Andy now lives in Northern Spain. When he's not off with a backpack in some far-flung corner of the world, he can probably be found watching the local football side or tasting local wines after a long walk in the nearby mountains.
